

DAY 5 | JUNE 2ND

Paris and Versailles, France

[AM] Tour the Palace of Versailles, the former royal residence built by King Louis XIV (~1hr from 9th arr by train). The palace was built as a symbol of the power, wealth, and excess of the French monarchy.

[MID] Eat lunch @ Lai'Tcha (2nd arr.), which serves simple but straight-to-the-point Chinese cuisine (or French dim sum). Next, wander in the vast Louvre Museum and the enchanting Jardin des Tuileries (1st arr.).

[PM] Going back-to-back. French Open. 2nd Night. Court Philippe-Chatrier Night Session. Bring your bougie spectator outfit.

[LATE] Revel and reflect on another K4 classic.

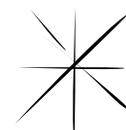

WHO IS K4?

All great things come in fours. Snack Pack pudding cups. Seasons. Major tennis tournaments. Tetris blocks.
Kevin, Kimmy, Katie, and Kenny.
K4.

But who is K4?
A constitution.

An elevated state of mind.
And, four friends on a banger of a Eurotrip.

MAY-JUN 2023

DAY 1 | MAY 29TH

Dubrovnik, Croatia

[AM] Walk the Dubrovnik City Walls. The walls run uninterrupted for 6,365 feet in length, encircling most of the City, and reach a maximum height of about 83 feet.

[MID] Drive to Pasjača Beach (30 min from Dubrovnik). The beach is situated below the Konavle cliffs where it meets the Adriatic Sea forming a narrow sandy-gravelly coastal strip of unique and wonderful beauty.

[PM] Head back into town to continue exploring the city known as the Pearl of the Adriatic. Dinner @ Azur, 7:15PM.

[LATE] Libations and vibes, served all night long.

DAY 2 | MAY 30TH

Krka NP and Split, Croatia

[AM] Drive to Krka National Park (1 hour from Split). Named after the Krka River, the park is known for its series of 7 waterfalls, the most famous being Skradinski Buk. Pack a suit to swim at Roški Slap.

[MID] Tour Split, the second-largest city in Croatia. But first, cool off with ice cream from Gelateria Voćni. Get the blueberry gelato, you won't regret it.

[PM] Wander in Park Šuma Marjan, then head to Diocletian's Palace. Don't expect a palace, though, nor a museum - this is the city's living heart, its labyrinthine streets packed with people, bars, shops and restaurants. Dinner @ Bokeria, 7:30PM.

[LATE] Rest. You earned it.

DAY 3 | MAY 31ST

Hvar, Croatia

[AM] Sail to Blue Cave on Biševo island, a waterlogged sea cave located in a small bay called Balun. Then, visit the beautiful fishing town of Komiza.

Start bumping some ABBA because Mamma Mia! was filmed here.

[MID] Head to Stiniva Beach, voted the most beautiful beach in Europe in 2016. After, explore Hvar, which has been inhabited since prehistoric times making it one of the oldest towns in Europe.

[PM] Take one last dip in the Adriatic Sea at Stipanska Bay. Dinner @ wherever looks welcoming.

[LATE] Unwind and reflect with a cold pivo (beer in Czech).

DAY 4 | JUNE 1ST

Paris, France

[AM] Short hop flight to Paris (~2.5 hours).

[MID] Sightseeing in the 9th and 18th arrondissements. Visit the Sacré-Cœur Basilica at the top of Montmartre hill for panoramic views of the city. Walk around the Place du Tertre, a picturesque square filled with street artists and cafés. Dinner @ Le Bimbo, 5:00PM.

[PM] The 127th Roland-Garros, or French Open. Cold drinks, fast serves, and champions are on the menu tonight. Stadium access opens at 6:30 PM.

[LATE] Did you even go to Paris if you didn't take a photo at the Eiffel Tower and at the Arc de Triomphe? No, you didn't, said haters everywhere. Enjoy these legendary French cultural icons, and forget the haters.
